

8. Match the formal sentences with the jumbled everyday expressions on the right.

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1. The patient was unwell. | a) He couldn't sleep. |
| 2. The patient was intoxicated. | b) He felt a bit funny. |
| 3. The patient fractured her arm. | c) She was feeling low. |
| 4. The patient vomited. | d) He was recovering from being ill. |
| 5. The patient was depressed. | e) He was sick. |
| 6. The patient was pregnant. | f) She passed out. |
| 7. The patient's condition deteriorated. | g) He was drunk. |
| 8. The patient fainted. | h) She broke it. |
| 9. The patient was convalescing. | i) She was expecting a baby. |
| 10. The patient suffered from insomnia. | j) She got worse. |

9 a) Match the Lithuanian words with their English counterparts.

- | | |
|--------------|----------------------|
| 1. emaciated | a) nutukęs |
| 2. puffy | b) apsinešęs |
| 3. coated | c) išsekęs |
| 4. obese | d) išgeltęs |
| 5. sallow | e) papurtęs |
| 6. clammy | f) įdubęs |
| 7. cyanotic | g) apkūnus |
| 8. stout | h) šaltas ir drėgnas |
| 9. flushed | i) pamėlynavęs |
| 10. sunken | j) paraudęs |

9 b) Match the term with the jumbled definition of the right.

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 1. clammy | a) of eyes/cheeks : curved inwards, showing that someone is ill |
| 2. emaciated | b) having excessive body fat: affected by obesity |
| 3. coated | c) slightly yellow in a way that does not look healthy |
| 4. sunken | d) a bluish or purplish discoloration (as of skin) due to deficient oxygenation of the blood |
| 5. sallow | e) being moist and sticky |
| 6. obese | f) wasted away physically, become very thin |
| 7. stout | g) of the tongue : covered with a whitish or yellowish deposit of desquamated cells, bacteria, and debris |
| 8. cyanotic | h) slightly swollen |
| 9. flushed | i) slightly fat (this word is less rude than 'fat') |
| 10. puffy | j) looking red because of being ill or hot or angry |