

9. SKIN LESIONS

Match each skin lesion (1-10) with its example (A-J) and characteristics (a-j).

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------------------|--|
| 1. crust | A. freckle | a. slit or crack in skin surface |
| 2. excoriation | B. athlete's foot | b. discoloration of skin surface that may or may not be elevated |
| 3. fissure | C. scratching | c. dried exudates, commonly called scab |
| 4. macule | D. eczema, impetigo | d. injury to epidermal layer that results from scratching, an abrasion, prolonged irritation |
| 5. nodule | E. acne | e. blister-like lesion that is elevated and contains fluid |
| 6. papule | F. blister | f. small elevated lesion that is usually red and many in number |
| 7. pustule | G. enlarged lymph node | g. elevated lesion of irregular shape and size |
| 8. scale | H. allergic reaction | h. formation of flakes on skin surface that are actually dead cells |
| 9. vesicle | I. small mole, raised rash | i. elevated, firm mass that can be felt under the skin surface |
| 10. wheal | J. dandruff | j. elevated lesion containing purulent liquid |