

3. HOMONYMS

Match the words in the box with the definitions below (anatomical vs. general)

Arm	Back	Calf	Cheek	Chamber	Chest	Ear	Eye	Face	Iris	Joint
-----	------	------	-------	---------	-------	-----	-----	------	------	-------

a young cow, its meat is called veal

in sports [gynėjas]; of page/picture etc. [nugarėlė]

mountain/building side [priekinė pusė]; side of coin [monetos pusė su skaičiumi]; side of clock [ciferblatas]

a small space inside something (such as a machine or your body); a usually large room where members of a government group (such as a legislature) have meetings a support (as on a chair) for the elbow and forearm a large strong heavy box used for storing things [dėžė, įždas] calm centre of storm [uragano, ciklono etc. centras]; hole of a needle informal buttock (one of the two soft parts that you sit on) cannabis cigarette [cigaretė su marichuana]

the part at the top of a plant such as wheat that contains the grain [bot. varpa; kukurūzo burbuolė]

a tall plant with large purple, yellow, or white flowers and long pointed leaves

Knuckle	Leg	Lid	Nail	Neck	Palm	Pupil	Sole	Trunk	Valve
---------	-----	-----	------	------	------	-------	------	-------	-------

a narrow piece of land or area of water [geogr. sąsmauka, nerija]; a long narrow part of sth such as a bottle [butelio ir pan. kaklas]

a cover for a container

a mechanical device that controls the flow of liquid, gas, etc., by opening and closing

a tree

part of journey/race [kelionės atkarpa]

the thick main stem of a tree

fish [jūrų liežuvis]

a piece of meat from an animal's lower leg [kul. veršio, kiaulės koja] someone, esp. a child, who goes to school a long, thin piece of metal that is sharp at one end and flat at the other end and that is used chiefly to attach things