

T E S T (Unit 4)

I. Insert the correct form of the verb from the verb bank below:

1. A child's illness by his genetic background.
2. The main causes of death in children aged 0-15 years difficulties during lab(o)ur etc.
3. Fifty years ago many children permanently handicapped from infectious diseases.
4. Fifty years ago rheumatic fever severe heart disease in small children.
5. Because children are healthier, the pediatrician's role
6. Today, pediatricians minor illnesses most of the time.
7. Cancer in only 0.03 percent of children.
8. Pediatricians normal children regularly so that they can serious illness.
9. Mentally retarded children to walk and talk later than normal ones.
10. Such a child must being either rejected or overprotected.
11. This kind of stimulation conductive education.
12. Yesterday the pediatrician Tom antibiotics for his chest infection.
13. During the next two months, Sarah any weight.
14. Then Rachel bad headaches and could not do her homework.
15. The tests showed that he mild mental handicap.

be (2); call; cause; change; cope with; detect; develop; examine; give; have; influence; occur; put on; start; treat